27th IFIP TC7 Conference 2015 on System Modelling and Optimization

Optimization and Control of Nonsmooth and Complementarity-Based Systems: Theory and Numerics

Weak differentiability of the control-to-state operator in evolutions with scalar rate-independent elements

Martin Brokate

Faculty of Mathematics, TU München

brokate@ma.tum.de

Abstract: We consider coupled systems consisting of a differential equation and a rate-independent evolution. Based on weak differentiability properties of the latter, we develop weak differentiability properties of the control-to-state operator of an associated optimal control problem.